#2. Acceptance

Sir!
What is this
The house we contracted yesterday has become a cleaning rag
Oh, that house
If you're talking about that house, after you were chosen as a sacrifice for the devil king

#3. Look Behind

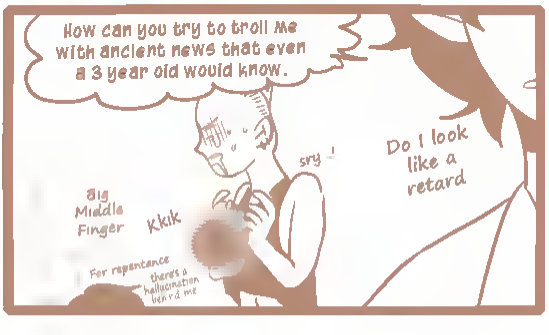
In that era, the magicians all became jobless and the unemployment rate went up but that was way too long ago so why are you still talking about those things
Do you have money?
I do
Give it

Even if there were a devil king that still exists, it would be a hikikomori just hitting its puberty
I'll give you something better than money
Oh what's it?



How can you try to troll me with ancient news that even a 3 year old would know.
Do I look like a retard
